Texan Bank President Receives New Accolades

HOUSTON, (August 22, 2019) – Texan Bank, a Houston-based community bank, is honored to have President and Chief Operating Officer appointed to the Texas Banker's Association Foundation Board as well as recognized as one of Houston Business Journal's "Women Who Mean Business".

President and COO Kristi Koncaba has been appointed to the board as the District 3 Director representing Houston. Since 1885, the Texas Bankers Association has been working to create a dynamic and profitable environment for Texas banks. This has provided a healthy atmosphere for the industry, as well as resources and services to benefit bank employees. With 425 member banks, the Texas Bankers Association is the leadership organization and principal advocate for all Texas banks.

In addition, Koncaba was selected as one of Houston Business Journal's 2019 Women Who Mean Business. This award is based on career achievement, contribution to company, community involvement, and leadership. "I am humbled to be named an honoree of HBJ's Women Who Mean Business. And I'm beyond honored to stand among the powerful women who shape Houston's incredibly dynamic, diverse, and intelligent business landscape. These women not only motivate their peers to strive for excellence, but also inspire the next generation of leaders to continue paving the way for women in business", stated Koncaba.
